Department of Corrections	1984	9	14
3. Agency to which group reports	4. Year was group established	5. Number of members	6. Number of meetings last biennium

7. Summary: Primary Responsibilities:

To provide a channel of communication and constructive action with respect to religious matters between Department of Corrections, the community and offenders. Functions include sharing information; recommending program, policy, goals and objectives changes; assisting in the development of supplemental religious resources and developing strategies for improving religious programs for offenders. Planning would be restricted if this planning group were abolished or modified. Changes to the character of the Religious Advisory Board would undermine the effectiveness of religious programs. The Board addresses only Department of Corrections' religious matters; therefore, responsibilities could not be transferred to other agencies. Further communication between the Department and the state's religious community would be more difficult should the board's activities be revised.
